

Reflecting God's Light

Volume 19, Issue 1

January, 2025

We serve as a Lighthouse of God to guide people to salvation in Jesus Christ. Worship, love, encouragement, and biblical teaching are the foundation by which we prepare people to face the storms of life.

DEVOTIONS for Spiritual Growth

All about attitude

"The way you say 'representative' to an automated system reflects the real you," a friend told me. After we laughed at that truth, I realized everything I say matters. Someone is always listening, whether the words and tone are positive or negative.

Ephesians 4:29 (NLT) says our language shouldn't be "foul or abusive" but good, helpful and encouraging. Whether I'm peaceful, hurried, joyful, empathetic, frustrated, celebrating or hurting, I can carefully choose my words (and the attitude behind them). When I'm not ready to speak wholesomely, may God shut my mouth. When a friend needs encouragement, may I listen to God's prompting. When I need to confront, may I do so lovingly.

Changing how we think — that is, how we speak to ourselves — can be tough. But God wants to transform our reactions and motives, dispelling pride, a lack of confidence and anxiety. In this new year:

- I'm alone can become God is with me.
- I can't do this can become Anything is possible with God.
- I'm failing can become Just because I'm struggling, it doesn't mean I'm failing.
- I'm not enough can become I'm God's beloved child.
- I'm tired can become God will give me rest.

Don't stop there. Consider the concerns in your heart and let God give you new words and attitudes.

Make a catch of fish to show what happens when Jesus calls his first disciples.

What you need:

- Cardboard egg carton
- Acrylic paint
- Paintbrush
- Darning needle
- Fishing twine
- Scissors
- Googly eyes or buttons
- Glue

What you do:

1. From the egg carton, cut out the 12 cups. From the lid, cut out two fish tails.
2. On a protected surface, turn the cups upside down. Paint the outside of each cup and both sides of the tails. Let dry.
3. Thread the needle with an arm's length of twine. Tie a knot at the end.

AMOS: A WAKE-UP CALL FROM GOD

In January, Pastor Jensen will resume the Amos message series at the 8:00 and 10:30 AM Worship Services. The book of Amos is relevant to our world today. It offers prophetic warnings against the practices of idolatry, greed and oppression. Amos addresses God's enemies, but he really zeroes in on speaking to God's people, Israel. In our world today, God's enemies and His people, especially His people, need to "wake up" and repent of the wickedness that God abhors and embrace justice and righteousness which are the foundation of His throne. This is the essence of Amos's wake-up call from God. Below is an outline of the remaining the general and specific themes in the book of Amos that we will continue to cover along with message titles and Scripture references.

Ch. 5-6 – The Calls for Israel to Repent (Ch. 5-6)

Lose the Hollow Worship and Idolatry and Seek Justice

"Two Poisons to Purge and One Virtue to Value" – Amos 5:22-26

Do Not Be at Ease and Arrogant While Sinning

"That's Not a Good Place to Get Comfy" – Amos 6:1-14

Ch. 7 – The Calls by the Prophet Himself

Amos Calls on God to Show Mercy to His People

"A Request to the LORD for Mercy" – Amos 7:1-9

Amos Defends Himself Against an Accuser

"A Rebuke to a Loser for Misleading" – Amos 7:10-17

Ch. 8-9 – The Nature of the Coming Judgment on Israel

The Current Conditions Will Come to an End

"The Status Quo Has to Go" – Amos 8:1-4

God Will Not Forget the Sins His People Committed

"You Won't Get Away With it!" – Amos 8:4-10

God's Word Will Be Absent

"Not. One. Word." – Amos 8:11-14

Devastation and Destruction Will Come

"What a Mess!" – Amos 9:1-10

Ch. 9 – The Call for the Restoration of Israel

God Will Restore His People, Israel

"In the End, God's Gonna Bless!" – Amos 9:11-15

DEVOTIONS

for Spiritual Growth

Hopes great and small

“The Christian lives with three hopes, two great and one small,” writes Bryan Wolfmuller. In his “Wednesday What-Not” blog, the pastor explains: “Our first great hope is in Christ our Redeemer, whose death and resurrection are our forgiveness, life, salvation and great hope. Our second great hope is in Christ the King returning soon to judge the living [and] the dead, and establish the new heaven and earth where the righteous dwell. This is our hope for the resurrection and the life of the world to come.”

Amazingly, there’s more! “Sandwiched between these two great hopes is our small hope, our lesser hope, our hope for tomorrow, our hope that we might begin to love and serve our neighbor, and do some little something to bless the people around us,” Wolfmuller continues. “This is the hope that energizes our vocations, that motivates our love, and that is the reason we make New Year’s resolutions. We hope that we might do something a little bit better tomorrow than we did yesterday.”

The pastor concludes, “If this was our only hope, it would be despair. But sandwiched between the love of Christ and the joy of the resurrection, this little hope is wonderful, and certainly not to be despised.”

A Lamplighter Devotion:

Placed in the light

If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, ... the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John 1:7.

To mistake conscious freedom from sin for deliverance from sin by the Atonement is a great error. No man knows what sin is until he is born again. Sin is what Jesus Christ faced on Calvary. The evidence that I am delivered from sin is that I know the real nature of sin in me. It takes the last reach of the Atonement of Jesus Christ, that is, the impartation of His absolute perfection, to make a man know what sin is.

The Holy Spirit applies the Atonement to us in the unconscious realm as well as in the realm of which we are conscious, and it is only when we get a grasp of the unrivalled power of the Spirit in us that we understand the meaning of 1 John 1:7, “the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin.” This does not refer to conscious sin only, but to the tremendously profound understanding of sin which only the Holy Ghost in me realizes.

If I walk in the light as God is in the light, not in the light of my conscience, but in the light of God—if I walk there, with nothing folded up, then there comes the amazing revelation—the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses me from all sin so that God Almighty can see nothing to censure in me. In my consciousness it works with a keen poignant knowledge of what sin is. The love of God at work in me makes me hate with the hatred of the Holy Ghost all that is not in keeping with God’s holiness. To walk in the light means that everything that is of the darkness drives me closer into the center of the light.

ADULT WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

Wednesdays at 7 pm

Leader: Dan Marrow

I can remember being in a Bible Study, answering questions designed by some famous theologian, and wondering, where did he/she come up with this question and, how did they expect us to understand it? That dynamic created a frustration that triggered thoughts of, "Do I really want to continue getting anxious doing something that is supposed to help me find peace?" I remember having a strong desire to know more about the Bible and how to research topics that interests me.

It is essential for every Christian to know how to study the Bible to find and understand more and more about God and His plan for the world He created, and how each of us fits into his plan. One should be able to dig into God's Word to gather and gain all the riches the Bible contains. I often combine two of my favorite verses that motivates me to grab a cognitive shovel and dig into the Word of God: Ps 119:105- Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path... and 1 Peter 1:13a – "Prepare your mind for action...".

Come learn the tools and resources for study that will assist you to gain increasing knowledge of our Lord and Savior, which will enhance your relationship with Him and increase your faith.

SUNDAY EVENING PRAYER SERVICES

We will be starting a new Bible Study in January!
It looks like it will be a very interesting study on Christian living.

WALK IN THE LIGHT

Centuries ago, the apostle John wrote to new believers to instruct them in how to live Godly lives. Today, John's words still hold truth and power as we struggle and triumph in our desire to "WALK IN THE LIGHT" with God and others. 1. 2. 3. JOHN: HOW SHOULD A CHRISTIAN LIVE? Invites us to grow in maturity as God's children while we learn more about what it means to live a radically transformed life.

ALL LADIES ARE WELCOME.

Prayer, Fasting and Casting a Vision - UPDATE

by Pastor Jensen

As a reminder, the Administrative Board and the Vision Task Force continue to work together to dialogue about where God may be leading our congregation. The leadership identified these areas as initiatives that God may be calling us to pursue. These include 1) remodeling and expanding the Kitchen, 2) enhancing security measures during public events and 3) implementing some sort of alternative education program such as a Christian Micro-school for parents who are looking for options beyond the public school system.

On December 9, 2024, the Microschool Launch Sub Task Force held its first meeting. Much progress was made concerning area number 3 of the vision mentioned above. We will be working through "The Samuel School" to establish our own campus which will take on the name "The Samuel School, Enola Campus". The meeting on December 9 focused on establishing three important matters related to this initiative: MODEL, MISSION and MONEY (that is, fundraising). Below is a summary of what was established at the meeting.

MODEL – The proposal is for the school to take on the following characteristics

-Christian

- God's word will be at the center of the teaching
- The Bible will be the guiding influence for the philosophy and pedagogy
- Reference to 1 Peter 3:15

-Classical

- Focus on goodness, truth and beauty with excellence
- Curriculum including literature, history, math, science, arts and music
- Cultivating thinking and explaining processes in attention to mastery of content

-Church-Based

- Following the mission of ECOG
- Providing a ministry to the community
- Embracing the school as a ministry of the church
- Separate corporation under the Samuel School

-Covenantal

- Inwardly focused with faith-based families agreeing to Christian Principles rather than Missional which is outwardly focused to the community
- At least one parent will sign a contract noting their belief in God and in Christian principles following the mission, vision and core values of the school

Prayer, Fasting and Casting a Vision - UPDATE (continued)

by Pastor Jensen

-Hybrid

- Combination of private school and homeschooling
- Parents work in partnership with the school
- Teachers select curriculum for 2-3 days at school and the other days students are homeschooled

-Microschool

- Small form of private school
- School would be under the Samuel School private school charter

MISSION

- A proposed mission statement will be developed
- Jill Kilker provided handouts of sample mission statements which we will use at future meetings do develop our own.
- We will also craft, in a similar fashion, a vision statement and a list of core values.

MONEY – That is, fundraising

- $2,000 have been received by the Samuel School for the Enola Campus through the PA Tax Credit initiative.
- The Enola Campus has also received a pledge of $1,000 from a private donor.
- Tuition received from families will cover the Administrator and Teachers' part time salaries.
- We will be working with local banks and financial institutions to secure funding through the PA Tax Credit initiative; banks are generous in supporting educational endeavors through the tax credit program.
- Nate Cook will meet with us to help us understand more about how the tax credit program works and how to approach banks and invite them to participate.
- The Samuel School main office will oversee the financial account of Enola Campus
- The Enola Campus will be covered by The Samuel School's liability insurance.
- The Samuel School advises that we should have an estimated $25,000.00 in reserves prior to opening the Enola Campus.

We thank God for the progress that was made in area #3 by the Microschool Launch Sub Task Force. We look forward to reporting in the new year how God also leads us in areas #1 and 2. Please continue to be in prayer asking God to guide us so that we will go forward according to His will and purpose. Pray that He will open and shut doors accordingly.

We will discover the answer to life's most fundamental question, "What on Earth Are We Here For?" You were created by God and for God, and until we understand this, life will never make sense. It is only in God that we will discover our origin, our identity, our meaning, our purpose, our significance, and our destiny.

So, if you are interested in discovering what you are here on earth for, please join us for this Bible study. If you have any questions, please contact Crystal Hammond at 717-557-1842.

A SUPPORT GROUP IS COMING TO ECOG IN JANUARY!

Are you struggling with grief, fear, anger, worry, a poor self-image, a lack of hope, resentment, a grudge, an addiction or various hurts? If so, you may want to consider checking out the Christ-Centered Support Group that will be meeting at ECOG on Monday evenings beginning January 6, 2025. The group had been meeting for some time at the Marysville Church of God and will be relocating to ECOG in January. The Lamplighters (Compassionate Ministry) Team and the Administrative Board have given unanimous support to allow the group to meet at ECOG. Dave and Faith Duskey, who are Lamplighter Team members, will serve as facility hosts. The group will continue to be led by Pastor Rodger and Cindy Scheuing of the Marysville Church of God.

The purpose of the group is to provide understanding, comfort, emotional and spiritual support to individuals who struggle with any hurt, habits or unresolved issues. All of this takes place within a Christian atmosphere. Group members support each other through Scripture and personal experience. Group members are not expected to "fix one another."

Romans 12:4-5 states, "For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another." The body of Christ is a great place to come to bear one another's burdens. Feel free to come on January 6 or if you would like more information, see Dave or Faith Duskey. You are also welcome to contact Pastor Rodger & Cindy Scheuing. The Duskey's and Pastor Jensen have the Scheuing's contact information.
