The gift of work

Missionary and author Elisabeth Elliot considered work a gift and a blessing. Ponder the following quotes of hers as you celebrate Labor Day. How do they mesh with your own views of work?

“This job has been given to me to do. Therefore, it is a gift. Therefore, it is a privilege. Therefore, it is an offering I may make to God. Therefore, it is to be done gladly, if it is done for him. Here, not somewhere else, I may learn God’s way. In this job, not in some other, God looks for faithfulness.”

“Work is a blessing. God has so arranged the world that work is necessary, and he gives us hands and strength to do it. The enjoyment of leisure would be nothing if we had only leisure. It is the joy of work well done that enables us to enjoy rest, just as it is the experiences of hunger and thirst that make food and drink such pleasures.”

AMOS: A WAKE-UP CALL FROM GOD

This Fall, Pastor Jensen will begin a Sunday morning message series at the 8:00 and 10:30 AM Worship Services based on the Book of Amos. This series is lengthy – we will start it in September and take a break from it during Advent and Christmas. Then, we will resume the series in the new year. The book of Amos is relevant to our world today. It offers prophetic warnings against the practices of idolatry, greed and oppression. Amos addresses God’s enemies, but he really zeroes in on speaking to God’s people, Israel. In our world today, God’s enemies and His people, especially His people, need to “wake up” and repent of the wickedness that God abhors and embrace justice and righteousness which are the foundation of His throne. This is the essence of Amos’s wake-up call from God. Below is an outline containing the general and specific themes in the book of Amos that we will cover along with message titles and Scripture references.

Ch. 1-2 – The Calls for Judgment Upon All Peoples

Calls for Judgment Against God’s Enemies

“I’ve Had Enough of You People!” – Amos 1:1-2:3

They Persisted in Evil Despite Being Punished

“Lesson Learned? No, Lesson Spurned” – Amos 4:6-13

Ch. 5-6 – The Calls for Israel to Repent (Ch. 5-6)

Seek the LORD and Live

“Seek God and Live” – Amos 5:1-12

Seek Good, Not Evil, and Live

“Seek the Good and Live” – Amos 5:13-20

Amos Calls on God to Show Mercy to His People

“A Request to the LORD for Mercy” – Amos 7:1-9

“A Rebuke to a Loser for Misleading” – Amos 7:10-17

Ch. 8-9 – The Nature of the Coming Judgment on Israel

The Current Conditions Will Come to an End

“The Status Quo Has to Go” – Amos 8:1-4

God Will Not Forget the Sins His People Committed

“You Won’t Get Away With it!” – Amos 8:4-10

God’s Word Will Be Absent

THE WAYS OF GOD

Blessed are those who keep my ways. PROVERBS 8:32 NKJV

Sometimes when God is revealing Himself to you, He may move in your life in a miraculous way. But friend, take note—He not only wants you to understand His divine, omnipotent nature, He also wants to teach you about His attributes and character, and for you to desire the same things that He does.

This means God shows you not just to do good works but to be fully devoted to Christ and His purposes. Yes, there is a difference. You can perform acts of charity without ever loving those you serve. But when you're influenced by the Spirit of the living God, you have a deep, passionate love for souls that transcends their physical needs or how they respond to you.

You see, when God is at work in your life, He brings eternal change. He lifts you up, prepares you for His service, and gives you a greater understanding of why He gave so much to redeem humanity. Knowing who He is in such a profound way will transform your life, inspire you to reach others, and bring about a greater sense of peace and security than this world can ever deliver.

PRAYER:

Lord, please align my desires with Yours as I fellowship with You today, amen.

In His presence . . . experience and reflect His love

Proverbs 8:32–36 (NKJV) “Now therefore, listen to me, my children, For blessed are those who keep my ways. Hear instruction and be wise, And do not disdain it. Blessed is the man who listens to me, Watching daily at my gates, Waiting at the posts of my doors. For whoever finds me finds life, And obtains favor from the LORD; But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul; All those who hate me love death.”

WEDNESDAY EVENING PROGRAMS WILL RESUME IN SEPTEMBER

Adult Bible Study, 412 Youth, Meetings and Kids' Klub will resume Wednesday, September 4 at 7:00 PM. The Adult Bible Study will be “How to Study the Bible” facilitated by Dan Marrow (see related article on p. 6). Come out Wednesday evenings this Fall and be blessed!

ADULT WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

resumes September 4th at 7 pm

Leader: Dan Marrow

I can remember being in a Bible Study, answering questions designed by some famous theologian, and wondering, where did he/she come up with this question and, how did they expect us to understand it? That dynamic created a frustration that triggered thoughts of, “Do I really want to continue getting anxious doing something that is supposed to help me find peace?” I remember having a strong desire to know more about the Bible and how to research topics that interests me.

It is essential for every Christian to know how to study the Bible to find and understand more and more about God and His plan for the world He created, and how each of us fits into his plan. One should be able to dig into God’s Word to gather and gain all the riches the Bible contains. I often combine two of my favorite verses that motivates me to grab a cognitive shovel and dig into the Word of God: Ps 119:105- Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path... and 1 Peter 1:13a – “Prepare your mind for action...”.

Starting this Fall in Wednesday Night Adult Bible study, we will learn the tools and resources for study that will assist us to gain increasing knowledge of our Lord and Savior, which will enhance our relationship with Him and increase our faith. So, come join us for the Wednesday Night Bible Study beginning September 4.

Prayer, Fasting and Casting a Vision - UPDATE

by Pastor Jensen

The Administrative Board and the Vision Task Force continue to work together to dialogue about where God may be leading our congregation. The leadership identified these areas as initiatives that God may be calling us to pursue. These include 1) remodeling and expanding the Kitchen, 2) enhancing security measures during public events and 3) implementing some sort of alternative education program such as a Christian Micro-school for parents who are looking for options beyond the public school system.

Recently, Deacon Rich Kreiger and Administrative Assistant Amy Kreiger met with representatives from Noelker and Hull Associates, an architectural firm, here at ECOG. The purpose of the meeting was to give the architectural firm access to ECOG so that they could provide initial recommendations to the leadership regarding relocation of the offices and a general "freshening up" to the upper level which will be necessary to accomplish vision area #3 above (a Christian Micro-school). Rich and Amy reported back to the Administrative Board at its regular meeting on August 13 and provided a proposal from the architectural firm. The Board took formal action to contract with Noelker and Hull to perform a feasibility study on changes to the upper level. As was reported last month in The Sonshine News, funds to pay for this study will be taken from the Building Fund.

Please continue to be in prayer asking God to guide us so that we will go forward according to His will and purpose. Pray that He will open and shut doors accordingly.

INTIMACY WITH GOD

STARTING
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

You've known the love of a parent, the closeness of a friend, or the intimacy of a spouse. But is it possible to experience an even deeper relationship with someone you've never seen?

In this revision of a classic bestseller, Cynthia Heald shows you how to turn the Bible's most expressive book ----Psalms----into an intimate place to meet with God one on one. You'll discover the keys to becoming more honest and vulnerable before God as you witness the psalmists' struggles and triumphs. And you'll make fresh personal observations with the help of the quotes from classic Christian authors and thinkers. INTIMACY WITH GOD will help you say along with David, "O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you."

All ladies are invited to attend Tuesday Mornings at 10:00AM in the Lower Level Fellowship Hall.
